MASS
INTENTIONS

“Who has touched my clothes?”

“Do not be afraid; just have faith.”

With these words the works of Jesus are shown to the world. The woman with the hemorrhages had in faith sought out the Lord Jesus believing that she would be healed. Jesus confirmed in her that faith when he sought her out. He then told her that her Faith had saved her. Soon thereafter the people told thy synagogue official that his daughter had died. Jesus immediately extended his hand and grace to the official saying “Do not be afraid.” The synagogue official then followed Jesus and his Faith was rewarded by the little girl standing at the call of Jesus. What great effects Faith can have in our lives. When we are met with the impossible, we are given the strength and support that we need. If we deceived by the author of lies we will not trust, for we have no Faith in God. But if like the woman, and the official we place our hope and faith in Jesus who came to save us, we through faith become one with him. And this unity restores us to our true selves, beloved children of God. Let us then come to the Lord in Faith, bringing all our needs to him who came to save us.

THE LORD OF LIFE

At this bountiful time of year, our Sunday readings teem with life and abundance. Both the first reading, from the book of Wisdom, and the Gospel passage from Mark assure us that God did not make death or even will us to be ill. Illness and death entered the world through the presence of evil, the Wisdom author tells us. Mark's stories of Jesus healing a hemorrhaging woman and resuscitating a dead little girl make it clear that Jesus is from God. As the Son of God he does not will that anyone suffer illness or death. In the face of such power, the second reading, from Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians, provides a stark contrast. Jesus, who could raise the dead to new life, "though he was rich, for your sake he became poor" (2 Corinthians 8:9). Our gift of new life from Christ demands our response in charity.
