MASS
INTENTIONS

“But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth; because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine.”

God expresses himself to us in a way that is at the same time very mysterious and yet very personal and accessible. Mysterious because we like to organize and categorize the world around us. Each thing has a certain place within the order of creation, and while some things are multipurpose they can still be identified as a single thing. Here we are told of the Three Fold Persons of our One God. This can be seen as contradiction and yet is experienced as unity. God expressed himself to us throughout the ages as One, but in sending His Son and the Holy Spirit we came to know more personally our God. This Most Holy Trinity then creates us and guide us and heals us. We are made whole in the mystery of the Holy Trinity. Let us rejoice in our God who so loved us that He shared the fullness of His Majesty, that we might know more fully of His love, and mercy.
