MASS INTENTIONS

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

As Moses said the commands of the Lord are accessible and understandable. We do not have a God who does not know us. Indeed, he became one of us and endured all that we ourselves endure. As we heard last weekend we are called to share the Good News with the world around us. We do so most effectively when we live according to the Great Commandment given to us by Jesus Himself. When we live for God and for others first we transmit the message that God is here for us. We are not two faced saying one thing and doing another. Our authentic living out of the commands of God show to others an example which leads them to a more holy way of life. Let us then take into our lives the law of God, living it, loving it, and sharing it through our care of God and our neighbor.

Missionary next weekend

I will be attending the Steubenville Midwest Conference in Springfield, MO next weekend with many Teens from our Parishes. While I am there we will welcome Fr. George A. John V.C. from the Vincentian Missions who will ask our help with his ministry. Please welcome him and assist him as best as you are able. The Second Collection that will be taken up that day will be for the support of that mission.
