MASS INTENTIONS

"All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

This call to proclaim the Gospel is not one that ended with the passing on of the Apostles. Each one of us in our baptism is called to carry out that same command given to the Apostles. Jesus gave them the strength, courage, and hope which inspired those to whom they spoke the Gospel. He will do the same for us, but will we take up the call. Though Jesus has ascended to the Father, he has not left us unaided. Before us are the countless hosts of Saints who lived out the command of Christ. They instruct and inspire us to follow that command ourselves. Jesus pleads our cause before the Father and gives to us the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit guards and guides us in all our lives, if we would but heed the Spirit's voice. The command of Jesus is simple and easy to understand, do not hesitate then when the opportunity to do what we have been commanded to do.

Confirmation

Please pray for our 7th and 8th graders who will be confirmed this week. On Wednesday evening our Bishop, Thomas John Paprocki, will confer on them the Sacrament of Confirmation. They have been preparing for this for 2 years and seem to be well prepared. Please pray that they accept this gift of God's Spirit that they might carry out the command of Christ in every moment of their lives.

Second Collections Next Weekend

We will take up at Saint Alphonse next weekend a collection to support Marquette Catholic High School. Also, at both parishes, there will be a collection to offer support and assistance to the retired priests of our Diocese.
