MASS
INTENTIONS

"Quiet! Be still!"

The words spoken to the storm are just as clearly spoken to us. We have many troubles that can obscure and distract us. The storms of our lives can feel overwhelming. Like the Apostles we are afraid and trembling calling out to God for help. Jesus who was with the Apostles would not allow them to come to harm. As it was for the Apostles so it is for us. In baptism we are made one with Christ and he is always with us. Thus we need not be afraid but with faith engage the storms around us, trusting that God will see us through.

Thanks to all those who made possible the renovations and repairs that we are continuing at this time. I neglected to mention one of our significant donors last week during Mass. Mrs. Jean Kramer made a substantial donation for the tuck-pointing and repair of the steeple. Thanks to Jean for her generosity.

THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior - the "big lake," as the locals call it - you can often hear the advice, "Respect the lake; don't take it for granted." People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today's Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.
