MASS INTENTIONS

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

Is this true in our lives? Who are we following and how does the teaching of that shepherd affect us, and the world around us. Jesus saw the people who gathered around him as sheep without a shepherd. They had been led in many different directions, none of them leading to full life and communion with God. They had encountered in Jesus and his Apostles a sense of the Miraculous Grace of God. They encountered the authentic presence of God and found themselves hungry for more. Jesus reaches out to them and teaches them. He does the same for us if we would but come to him. But so often the false shepherd who promises happiness and fulfillment, but gives us deception and despair seduces us. Jesus is there ever reaching out to teach us and lead us to salvation. For those times that we have strayed the Shepherd calls us to faithfulness and offers us forgiveness. Through Sacrament of Reconciliation we are taught and led by Jesus himself. He becomes the Shepherd of our Hearts leading us in the Ways of God.
