MASS INTENTIONS

“Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.”

The gospel acclamation today gives us the key to the whole of the Passion of Jesus Christ. It was his choice to be obedient to his father that we might be set free from slavery to sin. Jesus took upon himself the pain and penalty of our sin, accepting death on the cross for our sake. Today we journey with Jesus as he walks the road to our forgiveness and reconciliation with God. It is our hope that we will accept this gift and through our obedience, reflecting that obedience of Jesus, endure the passion of this life to know the promise of the resurrection. Let us walk with Jesus that with him we might know the freedom that comes through the Cross and grave.
