MASS INTENTIONS

This weekend I will be attending with a number of the young people of our parishes the Steubenville Midwest Conference in Springfield, Mo. During this weekend 3000 + high school aged young people from across the central U.S. gather to learn, pray and play in a Catholic environment that encourages living out our Catholic Faith. There will be time for quiet prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, the Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, in Adoration and the Sacrifice of the Mass. There will also be times for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We will offer God praise through our voice as we sing. We will play together as God's Children. Please pray that all the youth at this event grow closer to Christ. Please also pray that they come home alive in their faith ready to respond to what God calls them to in our parishes and in their lives.

Second Collection next weekend

We will take up a second collection next weekend for the Annual Catholic Services Appeal. This is our opportunity to support the ministry of our Bishop, Thomas John Paprocki. Without your donations our Parishes will be required to pay from our general revenues that financial support. Please prayerfully consider how you can contribute. You will support our Bishop and our parishes with your generous gifts.

J. Bell

Rest in Peace

Lord, Grant eternal rest to the soul of Mary Beilsmith. We extend our sincere parish sympathy.
